Important Note

Graduating from Cantwell-Sacred Heart of Mary High School is a privilege earned. The CSHM diploma is a testament of this achievement. Graduation Ceremony is a sacred and special time. In order to respect this event, no horns, whistles, poppers, or any other form of noisemakers will be tolerated during the ceremony. Security has been asked to give one warning and then escort the party out of the auditorium. As the graduates process in please do not stand in your seats or in the isles to take pictures. We ask also that no balloons or large bouquets of flowers be brought into the auditorium, and that small children be kept as quiet as possible during the ceremony. For your convenience we have asked a videographer to tape the entire ceremony. If you are interested in purchasing a copy of the video, you may pick-up an order form from the front office. As we gather together to celebrate the class of 2010 achievement we ask that you assist us in making this special event memorable for you and your sons/daughters.
